Administration

We would like to express our great appreciation for the guidance of our new administrators who are shouldering the responsibility of directing our thoughts, of helping us to cope with today, of giving us fortitude to challenge the problems of tomorrow and of training our minds. Both Mr. William Crowell, former principal of the Junior High, and Mr. Robert Paxton, former High School mathematics teacher, have been warmly received by both faculty and students. We thank them for the fine job they are doing.

Members of the school board also have many difficult tasks. They must call but the state school laws, set the policies of our school district and plan an educational program hard to surpass. The board heavily determines how our public schools serve our youth and society. How well they do this depends on the insight and understanding of those serving as members. We are accept indented to these public-spirited persons for the high standards and new schools they have provided us.

Mirror Staff ...

The MERROR staff, responsible for the publication of our school annual, colorfully illustrates school life in its various phases.

They spend endless hours after school and on Saturdays gathering, editing, and arranging the literary and pictorial portions of the book of the book.

If the '63 MIRROR brings back memories of three eventful years at SHS and revives the ager spirit, the staff and its faculty advisor, Mrs. Suzanne Kloss, certainly will have attained their purpose.

A new organization this year, the Art Club is made up of those students who maintain a high average in art. Under the supervision of Mrs. Mangus, members put their talent and knowledge of art to more use than time permits during class. In addition, members do art work for different school groups and activities.

Students desiring experience in speech, on stage, and behind the scenes find MASQUE & MIKE to be a valuable activity. This year the club gave a delightful one-act play which was enjoyed by all. Miss Davario directs these thespians.

Another feature of the Sharon High music department is the Brass Choir directed by Mr. Reichenfeld. These musical talents perform at various school and community gatherings throughout the year and present a program of unlimited entertainment.

Jiny

Clair "Tiny" Klopfer, who passed away January 27, 1963 was one of the best known and most highly respected music teachers in the Sharon school system. Tiny will be remembered by the many students who were under his direction throughout the years because he never lost patience or permitted them to give up; he instilled in his students not only a love for music but faith in their own abilities.

Not long ago Tiny was presented a plaque in recognition of the many years that he served the music department of our schools. For his unfailing loyalty to music and for the encouragement he gave the youth of our valley Tiny Klopfer will be dearly held in the hearts and memories of all who knew him.

Basketball Season 1962-63

Coach Bud Laycock, Assistant Coach, Donald Bennett, together with the Sharon High Tiger basketball players, turned out a winning season this year by completing a 15-7 record. Playing well in the pre-season games, the Tigers won 6 and lost 2, dropping one to Sharpsville 35-51 and the other to Youngstown South 55-59. In pre-league games, Thomas and Wallace, two of our starting Seniors, were hampered by injuries.

Starting off the league games by losing two in a row, the first to Ellwood City 49-53 and the second to Aliquippa 40-42, the Tigers, never losing spirit, finished out the league games with a 7-5 record. Hearty congratulations go to the coaches and to the team.

Conformed with a comparatively light squad, Coach Razzino guided the Sharon High Tigers to another very fine season. Substituting speed and agility for weight, the Tigers compiled a record of 5-4-1. Much praise and congratulations 20 to Coach Razzano, his fine coaching staff and to the Tigers of the 1962 football season.

We, the graduating Class of 1963, have a great and difficult task before as. We must continue and golde for the world. Ye must be the world's leaders. In order to succeed in this task, we, is individuals and is a not on nest conceen the challenges of life, seek opportunity, and give our best effort in what ever we engage.

It is our dety, each and every one of us, to strive to make our world a better dwelling place for nankind. Therefore we all stimlet the challenges of life scare v and face them wherever we might find these childrens. Whether it is in the mill, in the laboratory, the classroom, or the home, we must do our best to better the lives of mankind.

In order to meet lite's challenges successfully, we must seek opportunity—not security. We must wint to take calculated risks, to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. This is the only way in which mankind advances. It is is the only way in which mankind accomplishes anything.

After we have grasped opportunity, we must strive to give our best towards conquer og life's challenges. We shall only be saccessful in our conquest if we strive to give our best at all times. If we give one-homered percent of ourselves to every task, complete that task to the best of our ability, and march on to greater challenges, then we cannot fall.

We, the graduating Class of 1965, will meet with great and difficult tasks. We cannot fail, We will not fail.

Sincerely, Jack Bingham Senior Class President

Senior Class Play

The Class of '63 presented John Patrick's "The Curious Savage" to more than 800 in the high school auditorium on January 15. It is the story of an eccentric woman and her greedy stepchildren who have her committed to a private institution called "The Cloisters in order to gain control of her money. It is here while acquainting herself with the warm and gentle inmates, that Mrs. Savage realizes the great contrast between the wholesome people in the institution and the pompous, greedy people of the outside world.

Director, Miss Patricia Wilson, whipped the play into a higher level of drama with excellent and truly professional performances by the entire cast.

Senior Speakers -- Master The Art Of Public Speaking

Cave, Sara Moses, t or the same of the sam

The Senior Speakers Bureau under the guidance of Miss Smith, presents to various 1.......'s and community gones, speeches and panel discussions. Composed exclusively of seniors, this organization strives for excellence in public speaking. This year the speakers gave talks on UNICEF, American Field Service, and school recognition.

hesterday under the guidance of our parents and others we learned to play, to have fun, and to let ourselves run free in a make-believe world of our own.

The Mirror Staff could not begin to predict where the informals of tomorrow will be taken; all we can do is generalize the places where they might be. We hope that the times we have taked and kidded a ound in High School will be a valuable asset for us to relieve the tensions and plessives of our fast moving world. Thus was vesterday a preparation for today and today a preparation for tomorrow.

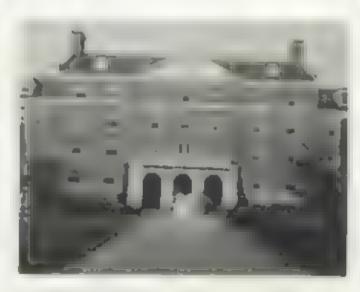

For some of us informals might be taken at a gas station or at a school.

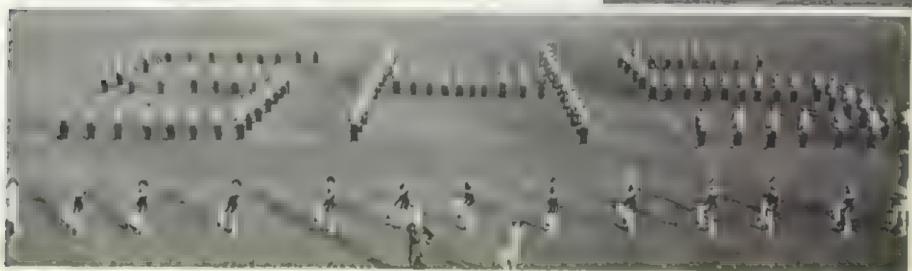

campus or maybe even in the White Housell

And for still others they might be taken in the armed services or in a plant.
